Gurob Harem Palace Project Mini-conference Friday 11th September 2009, 6.00 – 8.00pm

Gurob is an important Petrie site in the Fayum with many objects on display in the Petrie Museum and Manchester Museum from this 'harem palace' town. The GHPP team have been working there since 2005 re-evaluating Petrie's work and planning and surveying the site – come and hear all about the latest 2009 season and help to support future work. Find out about joining the Gurob Harem Palace Project.

Programme

1. The latest news from our 2009 fieldwork – Ian Shaw, University of Liverpool
2. The women of Gurob - who were they? – Jan Picton, Petrie Museum
3. Textiles, glass and faience - Gurob as a major Ramesside production centre – Anna Hodgkinson, University of Liverpool
4. What kind of palace was there at Gurob? – Ian Shaw

Organised jointly with the Friends of the Petrie Museum.
