

BLOOMSBURY SUMMER SCHOOL

continues to promote the digital publication of Rock Art Topographical Survey in Egypt's Eastern Desert

This fabulous DVD containing over 2500 colour photographs of rock art images and sites in Egypt's Eastern Desert is now available at half the original sale price.

The DVD is fully interactive and can be accessed from any standard web browser. Along with the photographs arranged by site are a number of images from adjacent sites which have been published in detail elsewhere, mainly in the works of Hans Winkler and David Rohl. The DVD also contains related maps, papers and explanatory information.

Dr Tony Judd, Mike and Maggie Morrow, and Geoff Phillipson have re-evaluated and updated reports on over 150 Eastern Desert sites, building on the pioneering work of Arthur Weigall, Hans Winkler and David Rohl.

For further information and examples of photographs on the DVD:

www.egyptology-uk.com/bloomsbury

You can purchase this wonderful DVD on our website or by using the booking form below.

Price: now only £10.00 + £2.00 postage & packing.

All proceeds from this sale will be re-invested in continuing research in this field.

The fully revised second edition of the Desert RATS volume (including the DVD) is available from Archaeopress in their BAR International Series, No 2166, ISBN 978 1 4073 0710 7.

Please send me copies of this Rock Art Topographical Survey DVD with its 2500 remarkable images and other invaluable resources.

I enclose this form and a cheque for made payable to Bloomsbury Summer School and sent to: The Director, Bloomsbury Summer School, c/o Dept. of History, UCL, Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT.

Title:

Forename:

Surname:

Address:

Email address:

Telephone number: